Foreword

TO THE students of Delaware Academy, and especially to the members of the graduating class, the Kalends calls up many fond memories. On its pages are pictured important events of the school year and the familiar faces of classmates.

As we go through school, we grow farther and farther away from our childhood. Sometimes we like to think back to those carefree days. For this reason, we have chosen Mother Goose for the theme of our yearbook. As you look through its pages, we hope the familiar nursery rhymes and the pictures will bring back to you happy memories, not only of your childhood but also of this year in school.

Dedication

We dedicate "The Kalends" of 1948

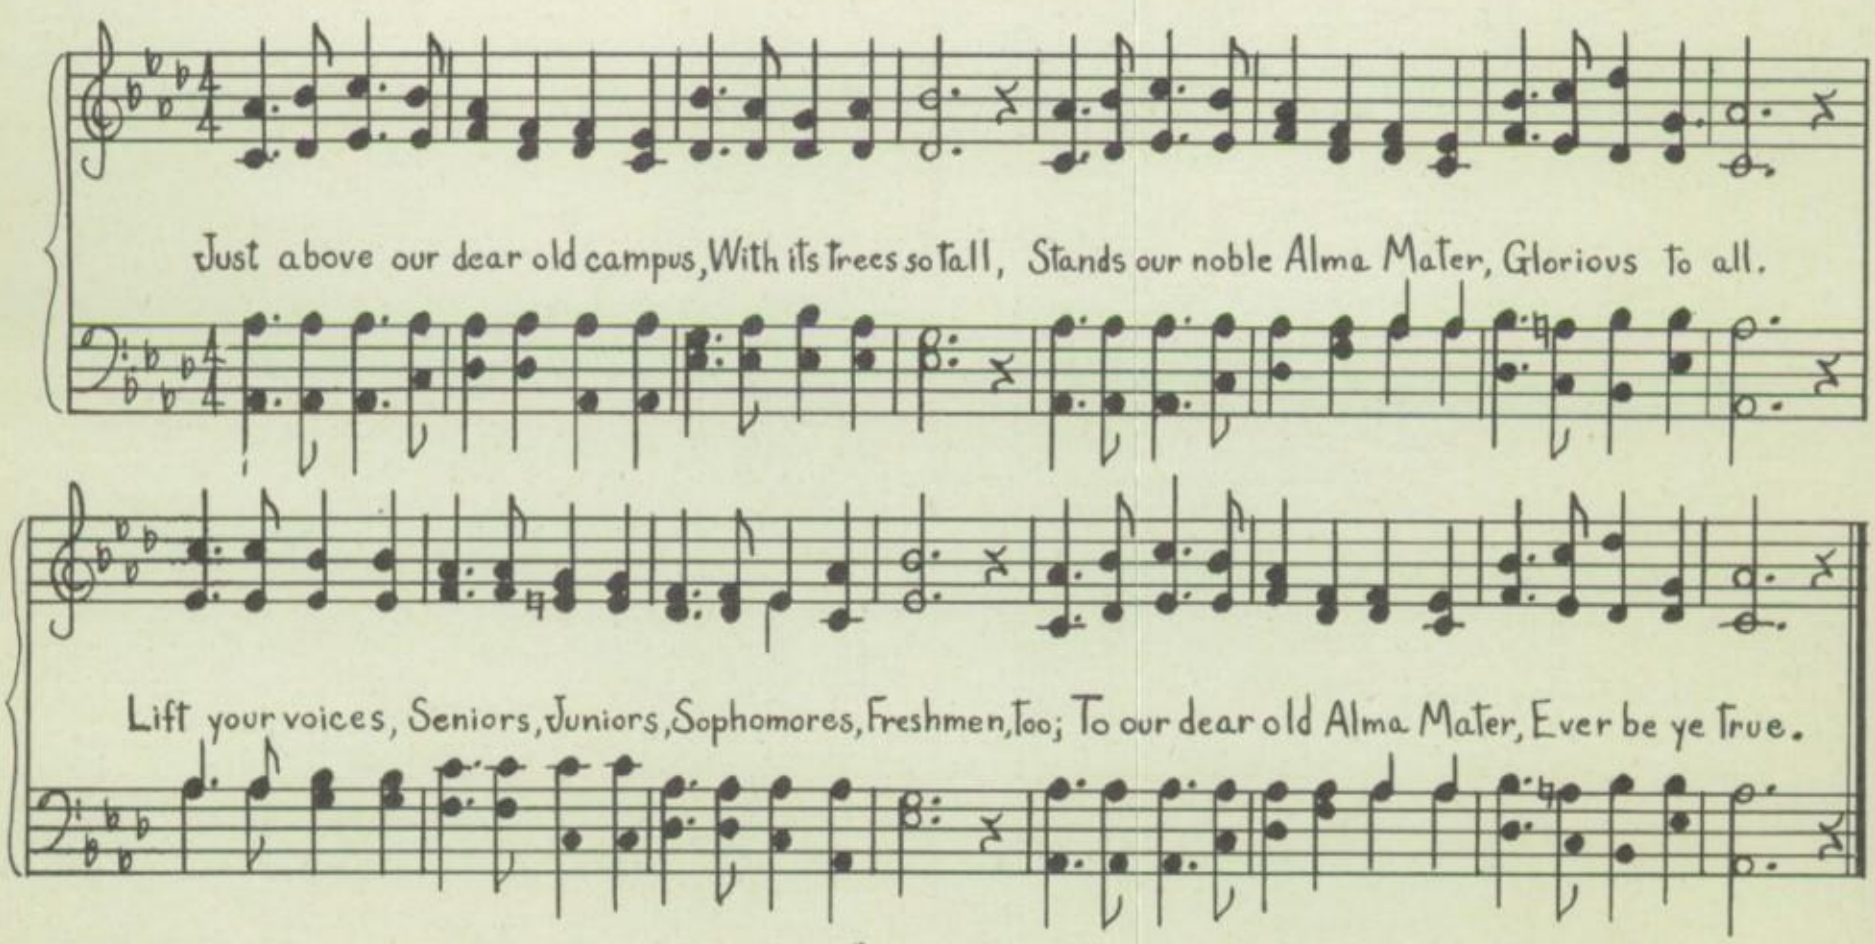
to

MISS MARGARET SCHLOTTMAN,

instructor of vocal music. The students are especially indebted to her for the fine instructions received in her classes. Through the grades and high school we have realized her influence upon us. We appreciate her efforts to make the Girls' Choir, Double Trio, and Mixed and Junior Choruses successful. Their many fine performances display the kindness, patience, and thoughtfulness which are characteristic of Miss Schlottman.

We take this opportunity to extend our gratitude for these many things and for the fine co-operation and help she has given us.

Alma Mater



Just above our dear old campus, With its trees so tall, Stands our noble Alma Mater, Glorious to all.
Lift your voices, Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, Too; To our dear old Alma Mater, Ever be ye true.

Melody from "Music of Many Lands and Peoples." Used by permission of Silver, Burdett and Company.

Class History

The Class of 1948 is about to leave this big, red-brick building that we have inhabited for so long. Mother Goose has been busy trying to graduate us and we hope she's done a good job.

On a warm sunny morning in September 1944, we entered the halls of D.A. as green freshmen. Mrs. Bramley and Miss Loomis helped Mother Goose give us needed assurance. "Tid" Griffin, Peter Honeywell, Paul Scobie, and Bob Brownell were our officers. Our first financial venture was "Teen Magic", one of the three one-act plays put on by the different classes. Our girls were properly initiated when they became Cain Raisers. We were all proud when McDowell and Brownell joined the pigskin crew and Dottie Fyffe made the cheering squad. That was the year we lost the heart-breaking basketball game to Downsville and Cliff Fitch received an All-Star Emblem. The big event of the year was the night six couples from our class held the daisy chain and formed the court of honor at the gala Junior Prom. We ended the year by having a picnic at Silver Lake....remember the ride in the back of the truck?

Remember the year when "One Meatball" was the popular song? Our officers that year were Cliff Fitch as president, Marga Deichmann as vice-president, Dottie Fyffe as secretary and "Tid" Griffin as treasurer Mrs. Arbuckle and Miss Flint gave us the helping hand and, with a senior trip in view, we started paying class dues. That was the year when D.A.'s athletic department really shone. We had one of the most successful football teams in our history. That year we successfully trounced Downsville in basketball and won the county championship. The school also proudly received the Good Sportsmanship award. Johnny Adams is the only remaining one of that great team. Our class was especially happy over the seventeen wins of the Jayvees....no wonder our team was so good in 1948. This year we went to Gilbert Lake for our picnic and had lots of fun.

By 1946, Mother Goose was a little worried about us because our finances were so low. With Eleanor Kent as our president, Marjorie Oliver, Bob McDowell, and Eleanor Tweedie as our other officers, we really made this year count. Most of the high school students took First Aid....the remedy for poisons was f.d.r. (fill, drain, and refill)....remember? Our Junior Banquet was a big success and a lot of fun.... Kentinsky and Leeinsky at the duo-pianos....the "8 Squares from Delaware" really hitting it....the "Academy Sisters" in "I Double Dare You." We sold Christmas cards and had a bake-sale in order to scrape up a little more "moolah." Can we ever forget Gladyce Fitch's "Rabbits Plus"?....with her fast-multiplying rabbits, Gladyce took first place in tbe county championship. In April we began to flash our fingers around and the seniors looked down long enough to notice that the Junior Class rings had arrived. Suddenly the responsibility of a Junior Prom dawned on us and we had a few bad moments for awhile. But finally the gym was decorated in our "Stairway to the Stars" theme and we were ready for the big night. Dottie Fyffe and Paul Scobie were crowned King and Queen and a good time was had by all (even the clean-up committee, thanks to the custodians). It was cold at Gilbert Lake but we had fun, anyway....it wasn't so cold in the boat, was it, girls?

When the Class of '48 showed up last September, Mother Goose felt like the old woman who had so many children she didn't know what to do. Instead of spanking us soundly, she put us all in the study hall. Although we were sorry to leave our advisers of two years, we were happy to find that Miss Tubbs was to help us through this last year. Eleanor Kent was re-elected as president so we knew we would make a success of this year. Johnny Bramley was vice-president and Marjorie Oliver secretary. Johnny Adams really had to force the dues out of us but we didn't regret it after that trip to New York. Our first bake-sale was such a success that we had another one in February. Without a doubt, our senior play was one of the best in a long time. Besides being a huge financial success, it was hilariously funny....Hildegarde's beauty mud....the can of worms....Johnny standing trouserless in the doorway. It seemed as if Mr. DeGelleke made an announcement every morning about the stationery we were selling....did we ever get rid of it all? Our football team was good and we beat Walton in the pouring rain....what a game!! Although we missed seeing Cliff on the floor, we had a wonderful basketball team this year. The game here with Schenevus was one of the best played. Of course, we seniors were proud of the first string....Big Dave Lee and Scobie were high-scorers all season. Finally the twenty-second of April arrived and we went to New York. Our hard-earned money was soon used up but we had a wonderful time. The Senior Ball went off smoothly and graduation week rolled around. It is a year like our senior one that we will remember all our lives. In fact, our whole class history is unforgettable.

D.A.'S Own Mother Goose

1947-1948 Version

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe.
She had so many children she didn't know what to do.
She didn't whip them all soundly and
send them to bed,
She sent them to school at D.A. instead.

Jack and Jill went up the hill
To get a bit o'schooling.
They had to work there, very hard,
But there still was time for fooling.

Bye, Baby Bunting,
Bulldogs went a-hunting,
To get a hunk of Walton's skin
To wrap our football glory in.

Deedle, deedle, dumpling, our boy John
Came on the stage with his underpants on;
Trousers off, trousers on;
Deedle, deedle, dumpling, our boy John.

One, two, three, I love coffee,
And the teachers love tea.
What good cooks those men be!
I love coffee, and the teachers love tea.

Thirty days hath September,
April, June, and November;
December brings us Vesper time
The Christmas story in pantomime.

Little Tommy Tucker sang for his supper.
But at the Junior Banquet, it was more than bread and butter.
Did lots of people come? You can bet
your life!
There were loads of men, there, and many,
many a wife.

The first day of Christmas
My true love sent to me,
A two weeks vacation
Entirely homework free.

Hickory, dickory, dee!
Pass it to Scobie or Lee.
Another game won! Boy, ain't it fun!
Hickory, dickory, dee!

Tommy's tears and Mary's fears,
They thought they wouldn't pass mid-
years.

Little Miss Muffet,
She stood on a tuffet,
Speaking in public one day.
The students from Delhi,
Said "Do or die,"
And stole all the prizes away.

Peter, Peter, pumpkin ater,
Had a girl and couldn't date her;
She asked him to the Leap Year Dance,
And so began their great romance

Bobby Shaftoe went to see
The carnival at Delaware Academy.
He came back very full of glee
Tho' his pockets were empty as could be.

Little Boy Blue come blow your horn.
The Sophomores had music from dusk until morn.

Mary, Mary, quite contrary,
How does your garden grow?
With Easter corsages and bunny mirages,
And ten school-less days in a row.

Tom, Tom, the piper's son
Heard the gun and away he run.
In each track meet our boys so fleet
Forced all our foes to dire defeat.

Ride a cock-horse to Banbury Cross
But when the Seniors went to New York,
They took a bus! (Without any fuss.)

Georgie-Porgie, pudding and pie,
Kissed the girls and made them cry.
When the Juniors gave their play,
Few from Delhi stayed away.

Cobbler, cobbler, mend my shoe.
I danced at the Ball till half past two.
The floor was good, the music fine,
I had myself a heck of a time.

Rub-a-dub-dub, nine men in a tub.
And who do you think they be?
The pitcher, the catcher, a fielder you betcher.
It's our baseball team on a winning spree.

Jack be nimble, Jack be quick
Passing those finals was quite a trick.

A diller, a dollar, a 10 o'clock scholar,
What made you come so soon?
I had to take a Regents test
To graduate in June.

"Pussy-cat, pussy-cat,
Where have you been?"
"I've been to the Prom
To see the new Queen."
"Pussy-cat, pussy-cat,
What did you there?"
"I danced the night through
At that gala affair."
